Parenting and Other Interrupted Conversations

Described as a unique and innovative health promotion tool.

Sless enables the conversation through comedy and community engagement.

Sless begins -“ in two words describe the birth”

Join in, take part, listen, interrupt.

A compliment to Local Government Early Years initiatives, playgroups, Maternal Child health programs, for kindergarten parents, early years conferences and events.

Can be run over a number of weeks or as one off event.

“Amazing and poignant.”

Parenting and Other Interrupted Conversations

Justine Sless comedian community worker and mother of two girls birthed Parenting and Other Interrupted Conversations during the 2010 Melbourne International Comedy Festival and has since added to the conversation at

City of Melbourne
Darebin City Council
City of Moreland
Australian Breast Feeding Association Conference
Playgroups, kindergarten AGMS, pop up playgroups, parenting seminars and conferences

'The format and content make the exercise feel like fun, but on thinking back, you realize it has been really therapeutic, and positive.'

'Between 3 and 4.30 am, trying to settle my baby to sleep, taking part in Interrupted Conversations helped me see a funny side to parenting;' Mother of Billie 3, Heidi Sanghvi

Justine Sless has performed stand up comedy since 2006 at Melbourne International Comedy Festival Adelaide and Melbourne Fringe at many conferences festivals and events
